Switzerland and United States of America: draft resolution

The Security Council,

Recalling resolution 2664 (2022) and its previous resolutions relating to the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida sanctions regime, including 1267 (1999), 1989 (2011), and 2253 (2015),

Reaffirming its previous determinations regarding the threats to international peace and security that prompted its imposition of sanctions measures in resolutions 1267 (1999), 1989 (2011), and 2253 (2015),

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Decides that the provisions introduced by paragraph 1 of resolution 2664 (2022) shall continue to apply to the 1267/1989/2253 ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida sanctions regime and reiterates the importance of monitoring the implementation of these provisions consistent with resolution 2664 (2022);

2. Recalls the role of the 1267/1989/2253 Sanctions Committee in monitoring the implementation of paragraph 1 of this resolution as per paragraph 6 of resolution 2664 (2022), calls upon all States to cooperate fully with that Committee and its Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team established pursuant to resolution 1526 (2004) in the fulfillment of its tasks, including supplying such information as may be required by that Committee in that respect;

3. Affirms the importance of the Council's consideration of any information, including, but not limited to, that provided by the Committee or Monitoring Team, regarding implementation of the measures imposed by resolution 1267 (1999) and other relevant resolutions, including possible violations thereof, taking into account reported cases of abuse of non-profit organizations, including as front organizations to raise, move or transfer funds by and for ISIL (Da'esh), Al-Qaida and their affiliates, as well as regular briefings received from the United Nations Emergency Relief Coordinator (ERC) as per paragraph 5 of resolution 2664, including on the impact on beneficiaries of humanitarian activities;

4. Reiterates that providers relying on paragraph 1 of resolution 2664 (2022) are requested to use reasonable efforts to eliminate or in any event minimize the accrual of any benefits prohibited by sanctions, whether as a result of direct or indirect provision or diversion, to individuals or entities designated by the Council or the 1267/1989/2253 Sanctions Committee, including by strengthening risk management and relevant strategies and processes;

5. Decides to remain seized of this matter.
